

MARCH 17, 2019 – 2PM

MEET AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR – KATHLEEN ERNST

Image credit: Madison.com

This best-selling author’s thirty-six published books together have sold over 1.7 million audio, eBook, and printed copies.

Her talk, “Chloe Ellefson: The stories behind the stories” (with a special focus on Norwegian culture and heritage) will be at the March meeting of Skjold Lodge – Sons of Norway in Palatine.

Her 2013 mystery novel, “Traitor in the Shipyard,” was nominated for the prestigious Agatha — named for mystery great Agatha Christie — in the best children’s/young adult category.

PRESENTATION DETAILS

March 17, 2019 -2:00PM

Skjold Lodge – March meeting

AUYA Ukrainian Center

136 East Illinois Avenue

Palatine, Illinois

2nd floor meeting room

This meeting starts with a heart-shaped waffle brunch!

Those who have been reading the Chloe Ellefson series will be delighted to have a chance to meet the author.

GUESTS ALWAYS WELCOME!

ANYONE CAN ATTEND A MEETING!

BRING A FRIEND!

WWW.SKJOLDLODGE.COM

(You don’t even have to be Norwegian)

SONS OF NORWAY